On Thursday, November 9 Mayor Schneider was invited to attend the Ferguson-Florissant School District's Low Ropes Course celebration. The course at Little Creek Nature Area, was designed thanks to funding from a Missouri Foundation for Health grant. The course is in line with the district's Healthy Schools, Healthy Community initiative. The Low Ropes Course will be used as a source for physical fitness and to promote collaboration, team building and problem-solving activities between staff, students and members of the community who visit Little Creek.
