From the Office of the Mayor

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DECEMBER 13, 2017

On Monday, December 11 the Northside Arts Association held their Winter Member Exhibition/Holiday party at the James J. Eagan Center Theater. Mayor Schneider attended the event, helped with the award ceremony and spent some time to congratulate all the artists.

Northside Art Association (NAA) is a St Louis based fine arts association dedicated to serving the interests of local artists. They strive to enhance the skill level and commercial exposure of their members through community exposure, networking, education and interaction with fellow artists. NAA is open to adult artists of all skill level and media and offers multiple exhibition and competition opportunities. At each monthly meeting, members have the opportunity to watch a guest artist or art field professional demonstrate and/or lecture on their field of art. Watch demos from past meetings on Northside's YouTube Channel at: <https://www.youtube.com/c/NorthsideArt>. More information about NAA can be found at: <http://www.northsideartassociation.org/>.
