FLORISSANT FISH SWIM TEAM WINS ITS 6TH STRAIGHT CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

Mayor Schneider congratulates the experienced coaching staff on another great year. And would like to thank the parents and grandparents for their support of the swim team and volunteering at all the meets to make the Florissant Fish fantastic.

The Florissant Swim Team which consisted of 176 swimmers from 3-18 years old finished its 2015 season taking home a 6th straight conference title and completing their 5th straight undefeated season.

The Fish earned 29 individual and relay gold medals at the Conference finals and three swimmers: Jaden Yarbrough (8), Gavin Baldes (10) and Amanda Hei (14) went 4 for 4, earning a gold medal in each event they were entered in. As a team the Fish had 155 swimmers achieve personal best times at the preliminary meet.

Jenoa Olson, co-head coach stated, "We've always had a long tradition of great swimming in the Florissant area. There's very good swimming talent here and our coaches set a pretty high standard for our swimmers to meet."
