The City of Florissant Parks & Recreation Department hosted the 5th annual “Dunegant Dash” Disc Golf Tournament on Saturday, September 9th. There were three divisions for disc golfers to compete in Advanced, Intermediate and Recreational. There were approximately 32 disc golf players that participated. 50% of the proceeds went to TEAM- The Emergency Assistance Ministry.

Competitors played 18-holes took a break to pair leaders, then played 9 more holes to determine champions and runner-ups. Many compliments on the Dunegant disc golf course were expressed including praise for the course layout, the grass mowing, the butterfly hazards and the new concrete tees.

Mayor Schneider would like to thank all the disc golfers that participated and to the Parks & Recreation Center Director Brendan Kane and his staff for organizing another successful tournament. And a special thank you to the Parks Maintenance crew for taking such great care of the grounds. “Disc golf has been a positive game changer for Dunegant Park”, says Mayor Schneider.
