From the Office of the Mayor

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NOVEMBER 27, 2017

MAYOR SCHNEIDER APPOINTS FIRST
DIRECTOR OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

According to Mayor Schneider a new department head position has been created. The Director of Information Technology will be responsible for all of the City's network and technical security and will supervise a staff of four employees.

Mayor Schneider is pleased to announce that Stephen Weiersmueller has been selected as the City of Florissant's first Director of Information Technology. Steve has twenty years of service and experience with the City of Florissant starting as a police dispatcher in 1997 and was promoted to IT Systems Administrator & Law Enforcement Specialist in 2007. And he has also served as an IT Specialist for the Major Case Squad of St. Louis Homicide Investigations. Steve earned his Bachelor of Arts in Information Technology from Lindenwood University.

The Mayor would like to congratulate Steve on his appointment and for his continued dedication to his department and the employees of the City of Florissant.
