MAYOR SCHNEIDER MAKES MOTION AT MUNICIPAL LEAGUE OF METRO ST. LOUIS TO INCLUDE LAW ENFORCEMENT BEST PRACTICES AS A REQUIREMENT FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE LEAGUE.

On the evening of April 26 the April Membership meeting of the Municipal League of Metro St. Louis was held at the Maryland Heights Recreation Center. Florissant Mayor Thomas P. Schneider made the motion to approve a new membership requirement for cities to be in compliance with Law Enforcement Best Practices which passed unanimously.

The new membership requirement reads “In addition, it is a requirement that all members of the League adopt, implement and adhere to all aspects of the Law Enforcement Best Practices Agreement adopted by the League membership in November 2017. Members must adopt the Best Practices no later than January 1, 2019 and implement all items by the date specified in the agreement or January 1, 2022, whichever is later.
