FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAY 8, 2018

Mayor Schneider again joins Jefferson City Mayor Carrie Tergin to encourage Missouri drivers to buckle up and put their phones down. Mayor Schneider was in Jefferson City to attend a meeting of the Missouri Mayors United for Progress organization of which he is the inaugural Treasurer.

At the meeting Mayor Schneider nominated Mayor Tergin to replace Mayor James McGee on the MMUP executive board because McGee retired last month as Mayor of Vinita Park. Discussions at the meeting included a report on several legislative bills that municipalities consider detrimental to good local governance and what role the Missouri Mayors United for Progress will take to assist the Missouri Municipal League advance the progress for residents of all Missouri Municipalities.
