POLICE SEEK ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING A STOLEN VEHICLE WITH TWO INFANT CHILDREN INSIDE

For Immediate Release: October 21, 2020

Florissant MO - Today, at approximately 12:08 am Florissant Police responded to the gas station located at 105 Dunn Road for a report of a stolen vehicle with two infant children inside.

Officers on scene were told by the father of the two infants that he left his vehicle running and unlocked while he went inside the gas station and upon returning to the vehicle it was gone.

The vehicle is described as a:

Black Hyundai Tucson

That vehicle was last seen eastbound on Dunn road from the gas station.

Inside the vehicle is a 16 day old Black Male wearing grey one piece pajamas with pink and orange on them with a white jacket.

Also missing is a 10 month old Black female wearing pink Adidas one piece pajamas.

Both children were in car seats.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Florissant Police at 314-831-7000
