2025 St. Louis Labor Parade Set To Take Place In Florissant August 24th

2025 St. Louis Labor Parade Set for Sunday, August 24

Florissant, MO – The 2025 Labor Parade and Festival Committee is proud to announce the annual St. Louis Labor Parade, set to take place on Sunday, August 24, 2025. The parade will kick off at 9:00 AM, with participant line-up beginning at 7:00 AM at the Eagan Center (1 James J. Eagan Drive, Florissant).

This year's route will continue the tradition of ending at Duchesne Home Association (Knight of Columbus), the same beloved location as in 2024, where attendees can gather, celebrate, and enjoy post-parade festivities.

The Labor Parade is a long-standing St. Louis tradition that brings together union members, community allies, friends, and families to show pride and unity in the Labor Movement. We are calling on all supporters of labor to help us make this year's turnout one of the biggest yet.

We invite everyone to participate, march, cheer, and connect as we honor the strength, solidarity, and spirit of working people across the region.

Special Event:

Don't miss the annual "Labor Tug of War" competition, taking place after the parade at Knights of Columbus Park. It's always a crowd favorite and a great way to continue the celebration!

We value our community's friendship and support and hope you will consider joining us in this meaningful event. Whether you're a union member, supporter, or advocate for working families, your presence helps lift up the values we stand for.

Join us on Sunday, August 24, and stand proud with Labor.
