2021 MAYOR'S SENIOR TOWN HALL MEETING

Pictured is Mayor Tim Lowery speaking to the crowd of Senior Citizens that attended today's event.

On Thursday, September the 16th Mayor Lowery hosted the Mayor's Senior Town Hall meeting at the James J. Eagan Center for seniors to be informed about progress in our beautiful city and to get an opportunity to speak with the City Administration, City Council Members and other outside organizations. Over 170 seniors were in attendance.

Mayor Lowery would like to thank Stacey Montero who is the Executive Director of the St. Catherine Retirement Community for sponsoring the breakfast, Catering to You for catering the breakfast and for Monsignor Mark Ullrich for giving the Invocation.

Numerous organizations provided valuable information to the seniors including: Florissant Valley Fire Protection District, St. Louis County Library at Florissant Valley, St. Louis County Older Resident Program, Greater North County Chamber of Commerce, Christian Hospital and Veterans Coalition.

Peggy Hogan, her Senior Office along with members of the Senior Commission organized the town hall meeting and did an outstanding job. Department Heads and some of their staff from every department were on hand and stayed to answer questions. For other upcoming Senior Events please contact the Senior Office at 314-839-7604.
