2022 MAYOR'S SENIOR TOWN HALL MEETING

On Thursday, September the 15th Mayor Lowery hosted the Mayor's Senior Town Hall meeting at the James J. Eagan Center for seniors to be informed about progress in our beautiful city and to get an opportunity to speak with the City Administration, City Council Members and other outside organizations. Over 175 seniors were in attendance.

Mayor Lowery would like to thank the St. Catherine Retirement Community and DeSmet Retirement Community for sponsoring the breakfast, Catering to You for catering the breakfast and for Monsignor Mark Ullrich for giving the Invocation.

Numerous organizations provided valuable information to the seniors including: Christian Hospital, Gateway Disposal, Aging Ahead, Greater North County Chamber of Commerce, MODOT, County Older Resident Program, Florissant Valley Fire Protection, district, St. Louis County Library, Missouri veterans Commission and Ferguson-Florissant School District.

Peggy Hogan, her Senior Office along with members of the Senior Commission organized the town hall meeting and did an outstanding job. Department Heads and some of their staff from every department were on hand and stayed to answer questions. For other upcoming Senior Events please contact the Senior Office at 314-839-7604.
