Florissant Police to increase enforcement for Child Passenger Safety Week

Florissant, MO-The Florissant Police Department announced today they are joining with statewide law enforcement September 13-19, 2015 for a Child Passenger Safety Week mobilization to crack down on Missouri's seat belt law violators, specifically adults who have children who are not properly secured in an approved restraint system. This effort is to help reduce highway fatalities.

"Local motorists should be prepared for stepped up enforcement," said Chief Lowery. "We'll be out there to remind you seat belts and child restraints can-and do-save lives."

Seat belt use is the single most effective way to protect people and reduce fatalities in motor vehicle crashes.
