Mayor Lowery is pleased to announce that City of Florissant Park Maintenance employee Tim Lemp was recognized and awarded a plaque for “Person of the Year” by the North County CYC Organization. The event took place at St. Ferdinand Park.

Tim was being honored for all of his many years of outstanding sportsmanship, determination and commitment to the North County CYC District Office. Mayor Lowery adds, “Tim has worked for the City of Florissant for 25 years and has always been a model employee that takes a lot of pride in what he does for the City, congratulations to Tim on this very deserving award.”
