GREATER NORTH COUNTY CHAMBER HAS SUCCESSFUL 2021 MUSIC TRIVIA NIGHT

More than 225 guests enjoyed Greater North County Chamber's sold-out 'Party like it's 1999' Music Trivia Night at the James J. Eagan Center on April 17th. Usually held at the JFK Center, Mayor Tim Lowery and the City of Florissant helped the Chamber transition to the Eagan Center to allow for more guests while adhering to St. Louis County COVID restrictions.

The evening was a huge success, thanks in part to Music Trivia DJ, Big Papa G.

Guests bought tickets for raffles that included a Booze Bucket donated from the Chamber's Board of Directors, a Beach Bum Millionaire Lottery Umbrella and much more. Guests also brought diaper donations for the St. Louis Crisis Nursery.

The evening volunteers were Dana Grimm with the Daniel and Henry Co, Scott Palermo with A Skeetz Production, Tom Gilliland with Vivial, Mike and Lisa Moehlenkamp with Gary's Auto, Derick and Ronna Wellman with Amore Pizza, Carl Lathan with Hope Hospice, Mary Keirath with Seniors Helping Seniors, Rebecca Zoll with North County Inc, Heike Janis with the Ferguson-Florissant School District, Lisa Collier with Grand Center Toastmaster's Club 5000, Mikey Berliner, and Joe Jenkins.

The Chamber thanked their 2021 sponsors: Presenting Sponsor: SSM Health DePaul Hospital – St. Louis; VIP Tent Sponsors: Brennen Sowa – State Farm Insurance Agent, Dedicated Senior Medical Center, and Resler-Kerber Optometry; VIP Food Sponsor: Ferguson-Florissant School District; Round Sponsors: City of Florissant, Daniel and Henry Company, Gary's Auto Service, Hope Hospice, Robinwood Automotive and Tire, SSM Health DePaul Hospital, and St. Louis Community College – Florissant Valley; Lottery Tree Sponsor: Vivial. VIP Food was donated by Amore Pizza, Catering to You, and Pirrone's Pizzeria.
