“JUDO FOR KIDS” CELEBRATES ANNUAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARDS

Mayor Lowery was pleased to announce that on October 23, 2019, the Judo Scholar/Athletes were honored by receiving large, beautiful trophies and the praise of their families and Judo teachers.

The “Judo For Kids” class meets on Wednesday evenings at the James J. Eagan Center. The course is taught by World Class Judo Instructor, Sensei Eiko Saito Shepherd, an 8th Degree Black Belt in Judo from Japan. Along with her assistants Sensei John been and Sensei Veronica Been, children have an exciting opportunity to learn judo in a safe and supportive atmosphere.

At the end of each judo practice, students are awarded Star Stamps for displaying concentration, effort and cooperation. The “Judo For Kids” organization would like to thank Mayor Lowery, the JJE staff, and the City of Florissant for providing a positive motivating program for the children.

Judo is designed for everyone of all ages. For more information, please contact JJE at 314-921-4466.
